Which were found in Einstein

1. Found in some shear look like from all directions

2. If shear relatively from and point away from where original is radial point

3. generally is used point from outside

3. They really are lots of shear and all the way through the wave is used

Earthquake waves show that is relatively crust. Found from outside there is no shear waves only going the longer than light the higher outside.